you can do whatever you want to do
wherever you want to go it's up to you . . .

. . . and wouldn't it be fine following your heart knowing from the start
it's up to you

blue skies smilin' at me nothin' but blue skies do i see blue days, all of them gone nothin' but blue skies from now on —irving berlin

friends, i will remember you think of you pray for you and when another day is through i'll still be friends with you

—bill and taffy danoff

we've been friends now for so many years, we've been together through the good times and the tears —brian wilson, carl wilson, much of my life has been spent marchin' to a humdrum layin' back waitin' for lightning to strike but it never comes . . .

i've had it up to here with the tried and the true way let them stare i don't care gonna find me some new way so come on get crazy with me

—ray stevens

i've always been crazy
 but it's kept me from going insane nobody knows if it's something to bless or to blame so far i ain't found a rhyme or a reason to change
 i've always been crazy
 but it's kept me from goin' insane

—waylon jennings

when some loud braggard tries to put me down and says his school is great i tell him right away,
 "now what's the matter, buddy ain't you heard of my school? it's number one in the state" so be true to your school just like you would to your girl or guy
 be true to your school and let your colors fly

—brian wilson

this is for all the lonely people thinkin' that life has passed them by don't give up until you drink from the silver cup and ride that highway in the sky

—dan peek

take it easy, take it easy don't let the sound of your own wheels make you crazy lighten up if you still can don't even try to understand just find a place to make your stand and take it easy

An air of superiority prevailed as seniors anxiously pondered their high hopes for their long awaited final year at the top. This was THE year after all, and big plans were under way for an unforgettable one. Class excursions, seniors privileges, and even toga parties were among some of the big events on the agenda. Class unity among the seniors prospered, as the many exclusive senior activities got under way. Contrary to many beliefs, however, being a senior did have its share of responsibilities, and some awfully big ones at that. The time had come for some big decisions concerning the future. College applications were completed, career possibilities carefully considered. As seniors prepared for life in the outside world, their appreciation for the security of their last year at Madison grew even more precious.

Go on with your song, bird
 You can't go wrong bird.
 You will go on and on, bird
 Like you did before.

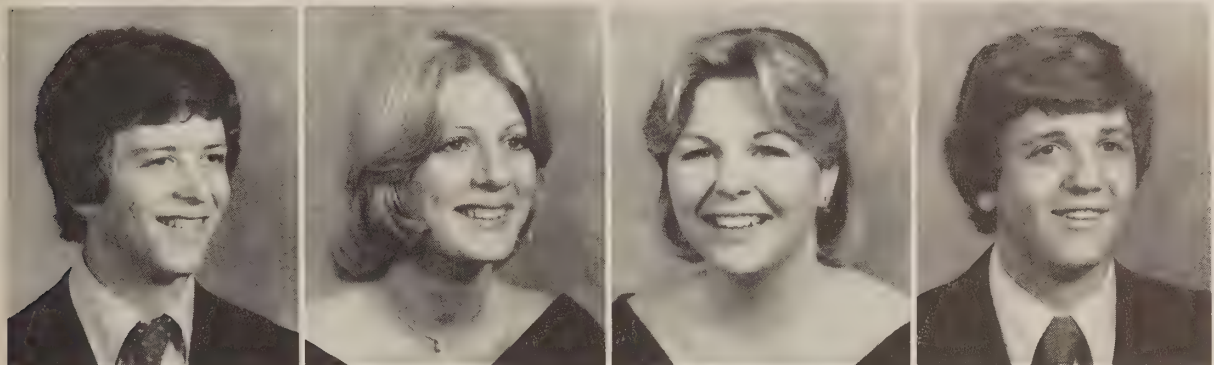

Though your wings are broken,
 The sky is so wide open
 And the wind is waiting for you Like an open door.

Though you go so far away,
 Your voice can still be heard so well.

You'll never really know How beautiful you are . . .

This year the Senior Class had to fight to get the traditional Senior Privileges. The Seniors acquired their cut cards as the result of the determination of the Class Officers, and managed to get an added benefit. Instead of the hassle involved with cutting in line, the Administration decided to try out something new and less confusing. All seniors were permitted to leave class three minutes early in order to beat the lunch rush, avoid the long lines, and get the best tables. Of course, seniors still had the right to use their cut cards for the purpose of missing one day of school per quarter. Although some seniors encountered problems in getting their various teachers to honor the cut cards, most managed to get together at one time or another for a day of "Legal Truancy". All in all, the Seniors seemed fairly pleased with the privileges they had because it gave another bonus to their already evident superiority.

The class of '79, after their usual procrastinating, once again pulled together to create an imaginative Homecoming float. With the promise of refreshments and a good time, the turn-out was tremendous, and the outlook immediately brightened. Incorporating this year's theme of "Historical Events", the Senior's float depicted Betsy Ross herself, busily sewing away at her flag. Gazing at the crowd through her bifocals with a smile that could melt the coldest judges' hearts, Betsy was sure to be a winner. But . . . deprived of this year's prize, seniors were not discouraged. They knew that the memory of a great time among friends was a far greater reward.

Portfolio

Whoever said that Madison doesn't live here anymore has got a point. In spite of the familiar red brick and the original door jams, and of course the location, Madison isn't the school it used to be. In the beginning, the students ate in the library, but since that was the cafeteria there was every reason to. Madison students of the late 50's and early 60's followed strict rules, including the "dress code"! And if some unfortunate student left the cafeteria during lunch, they "weren't allowed back in the school." This probably meant suspension.

Another noteworthy fact concerns up and down staircases that present Madison students outgrew in Jr. High. It's been said that the atmosphere in Madison, too, has changed-yes, there is less regimentation of conduct, but people are people and always will be. (There will be a discussion on situation ethics (June 31 in the band room.)

In the past, there have been many changes to Madison itself: additions including a gym, a cafeteria, and a cosmetology wing and once again, there is construction. The plans for 1979 renovation include a new art department, an improved auditorium and library, and an updated home ec. department. A student returning to Madison after 15 years, would probably be shocked at the sight of these changes, but hopefully for the sake of his mental stability, he would remember that Madison is still Madison despite the outward appearance, and that Madison still lives here.

1. Some Junior float workers tired of working, ride their "Spirit of St. Louis" through the Homecoming Parade. 2. King Tut and two sophomore friends get ready for the final showing. 3. The senior float Betsy Ross smiles for her yearbook picture. 4. Three Madison Thespians show their impressions of several famous historic actresses. 5. "Who are those clowns?" you ask. They're Madisonettes building up Homecoming spirit. 6. Most original float "Knighthood" gallops by the crowd. 7. Two freshman cheerleaders help the Madisonettes encourage spirit.

As usual, Madison's Homecoming game, on the night of October sixth, proved to be a festive occasion. During halftime, the Freshman float "Knighthood" earned the title of most original, while the Junior's "Spirit of St. Louis" took off with best-all-around. Afterward, Tracy Prior was crowned Madison's Homecoming Queen for 1978 by last year's queen, Lisa Ingram. Meanwhile, on the field, the Warhawks climaxed the celebration by adding another win to their long string of victories as they rose to the occasion by overwhelming Lee 27-15.

Madison alumni and students watched last year's Homecoming Queen Lisa Ingram crown Tracy Prior Queen of the 1978 homecoming. A happy and surprised Tracy was surrounded by the '78 Homecoming Court:

1. Sue Yost, a senior princess, smiles for our camera. Her escort was John Yost (not pictured).

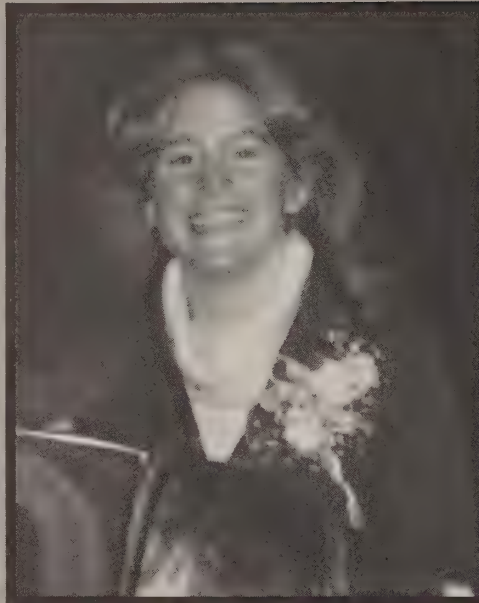

2. Escorted by Nate King (not pictured) is Junior Princess Mary Gumina in a pensive mood.

3. Taking their positions in front of the crowd, are freshman princess Charlet Hoy and Mark Denisar.

4. Senior Princess Cathy Behl was escorted by Bobby Rucks (not pictured).

5. Sophomore Princess Lizzie Harvey, standing next to escort Chip Cox, turns a delighted face toward the crowd.

Tracy, who is an active student and an accomplished dancer, hopes to have a career as a commercial airline pilot. In our twentieth year at Madison, we are proud to present this year's Homecoming Court.

title: biology field trip

PURPOSE: To observe and meticulously record data on numbers of species of plant and animal life, temperature and depth of water, identification of species and food chains . . .

PROCEDURE: Oct. 11/12: board buses leaving for Lake Fairfax. Upon arriving, DO NOT GET LOST! Follow the trail to the creek to find your area—rope it off. There is to be no fighting over land. Once established, start immediately. You have just four hours to complete his lab.

NOTE: ALL WORK IS TO BE DONE BY YOU AND YOUR LAB PARTNER ONLY—NO GROUP WORK! Report all accidents, even minor injuries, to teachers who will be periodically checking up on you. But PLEASE DO NOT disturb teachers during cook-out of steak, hamburgers . . .

NOTE: NO SWIMMING IN LAKE Report to buses at whistle or you will be left behind!!

CONCLUSION: This lab was successful in that significantly more food was consumed by teachers and labbies than the average student. This is evidenced by picture 6, Mr. Davis giving a willing hand to help with the cooking.

Some students, however, were able to find the time to eat, as picture 4 illustrates, and many students spent the day working (Pic. 1) In some instances, students went to great lengths to research information, as did Stacey

Cohen, who is pictured here emerging from the lake after testing the temperature of the water. In conclusion, I would say this lab has been informative in VARIOUS areas of study and proved to be a grand frolic!

Madison's "It's Academic" team, sponsored by Glen Bowman, came in a strong second in the televised competition with Wootton and Washington-Lee. The competitors from Madison included team captain Mark Cohen, Tony deLeon, and Russell Paul, with alternate John Meyer.

barbara abel miss madison

This year's Miss Madison pantomimed "How Lucky Can You Get" from "Funny Girl" during the talent competition. In response to the pageant, Barbara said that she felt it was a real success. She added "It was a great experience. The pageant was handled very well. All the people working with each other were very close." In the future, Barbara hopes to go to college to prepare for a career in law.

miss madison contest

Barbara Abel was crowned the 1978-79 Miss Madison in the annual pageant held on October 28. She was among the seven semi-finalists chosen from the twenty contestants who were judged on beauty and talent. Each of these seven girls answered questions to determine the final winner. The two masters of ceremonies, Bill Nuhn and Debbie Anchors, then announced the three runners up. Linda Dingman, senior, sang "Wouldn't It Be Lovely" from "My Fair Lady" was third runner up. The second runner up was junior Jackie Gianettino, pantomiming "Rocky". Playing "Malaquena" on the piano, senior Lee Dennis was first runner up. The girls elected Kim Carter, who performed "The Candle Dance", Miss Congeniality. The pageant was very successful due to the hard work and efforts of the Future Homemakers of America Club and Mrs. Walochik, who sponsored the pageant.

The play "Mousetrap", written by Agatha Christie, is set in the English countryside at a guest house, Monkswell Manor. Mollie and Giles Ralston have just opened the house and they are now expecting their first guests. Despite the rapidly thickening snow, the guests arrive on schedule. Mrs. Boyle, Major Metcalf, Miss Casewell, and Christopher Wren are all settling into their new home, when a foreigner, Mr. Paravicini arrives, claiming his car has overturned in the snow. The occupants of Monkswell now realize that they are snow-bound for the time being.

The tension begins to build when the news reaches Monkswell that a murder has been committed in London, and the police are now on their way to the Manor. Sergeant Trotter arrives on skis to explain that the murderer in London used the popular nursery rhyme "Three Blind Mice" as his calling-card. The London victim was the first "mouse", and two more murders were expected in the near future. Sergeant Trotter believes the murderer and the two victims are now residents of Monkswell Manor. Unfortunately, the second victim, Mrs. Boyle, is killed before Trotter can identify the murderer. When he fails in his attempt to kill Mollie Ralston, the murderer is finally discovered to be Sergeant Trotter.

"You light up my life . . ."

dateline; hollywood

Lorrie Mahaffey, who has starred in "Happy Days" on several occasions, had her start here at Madison. As a freshman, she became interested in many activities like concert choir, plays, and musicals. This gave her the chance to meet new people and make new friends so that in her sophomore year she was elected class secretary. She continued with her singing and by her junior year she was voted Homecoming Queen and later was elected to the Senior Superlatives as Best Looking, Most Likely to be Remembered, and Most Talented.

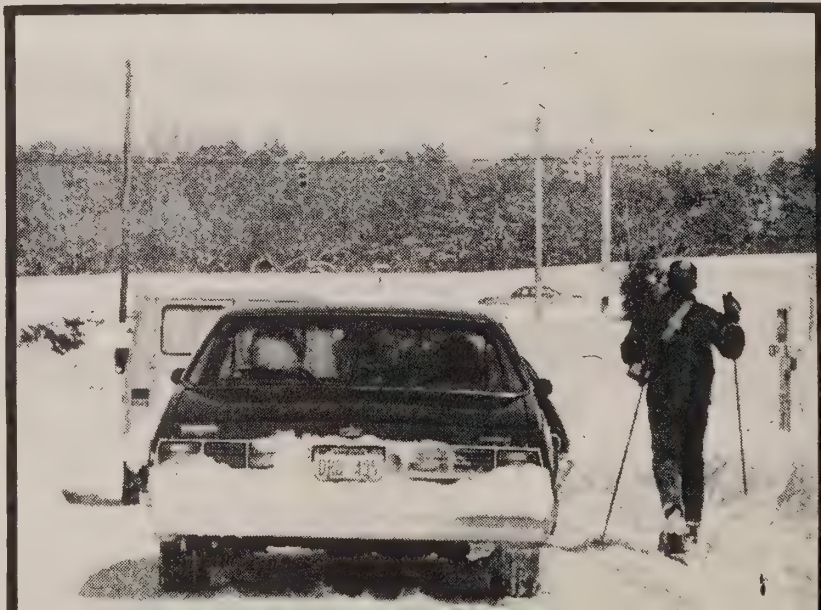

Lorrie now resides in Hollywood California with her husband, Anson Williams, among other famous television personalities. She is on her way to becoming an accomplished actress and Madison wishes her the best of luck!

from africa to ork

As usual, the '78-'79 TV season provided many new shows. Perhaps the most successful of these is "Mork & Mindy," a sit-com about a naive spaceman. Other shows include "Vegas," "Kaz," "Battlestar Galactica," "WKRP in Cincinnati," "The Paper Chase," "Grandpa Goes to Washington," and "Taxi." The networks also gave us quite a few good movies and "novels for television" such as "Roots: The Next Generations," "Elvis," "Gone With the Wind", "One Flew Over the Cuckoo's Nest," and "Rocky." PBS also contributed to the entertainment with the series of Shakespeare's plays.

A comedy from Universal Pictures
THE MATTY SIMMONS / NORTON REITMAN PRODUCTION

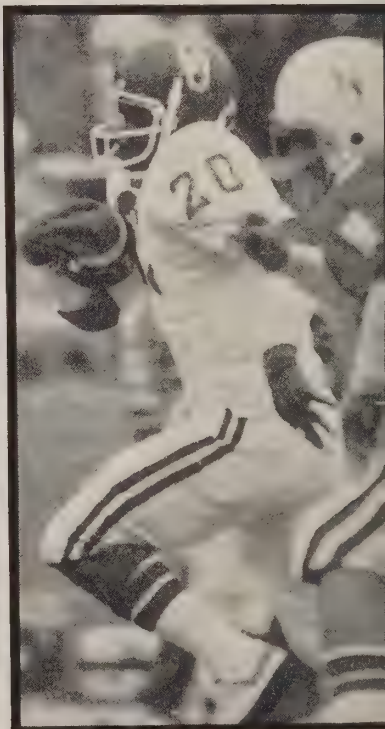

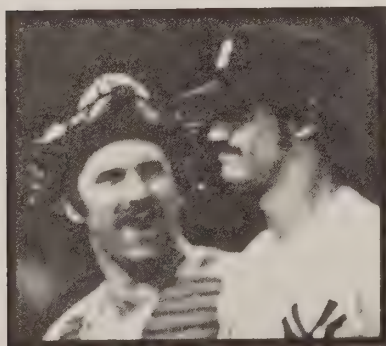

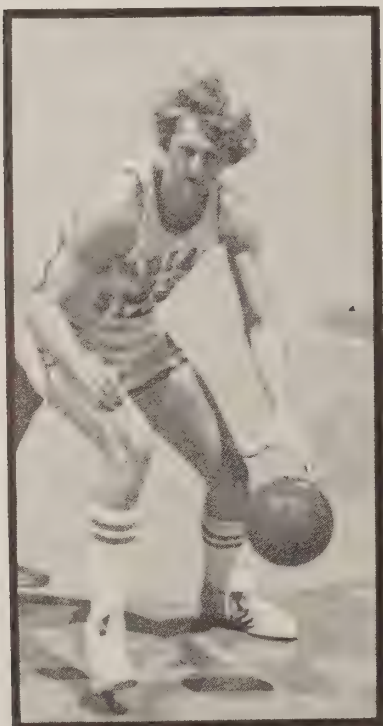

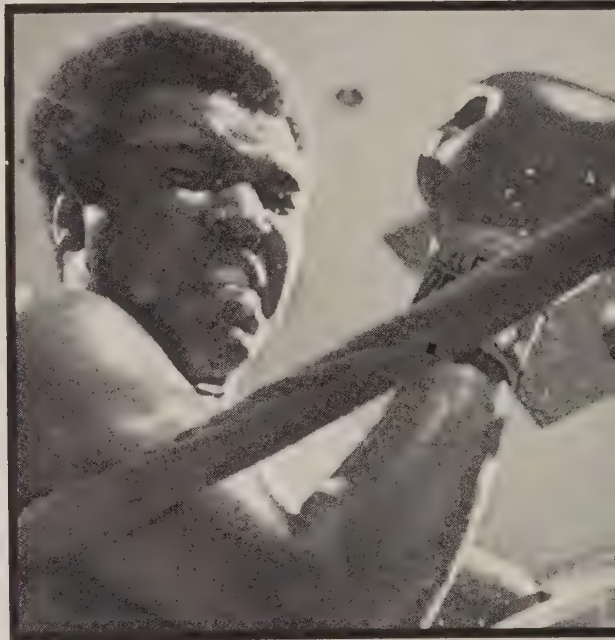

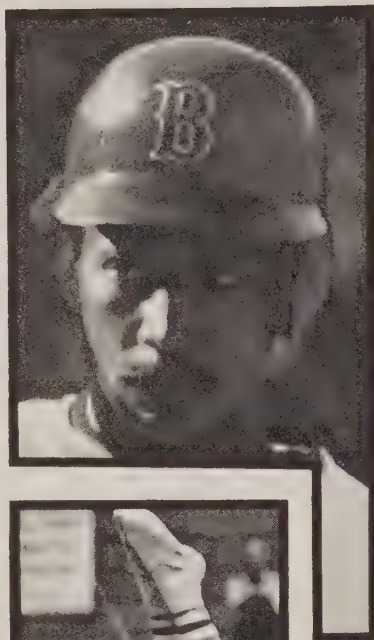

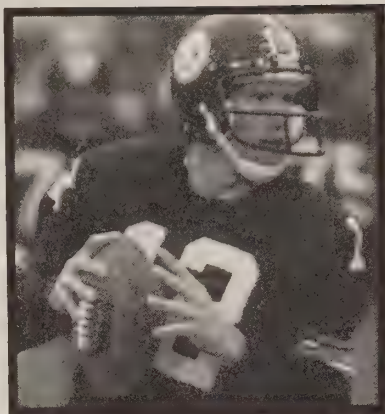

"If you're in high school, if you're in college, if you're out of college, if you've ever heard of college, a national combination fun, or you're just ready for some wild college humor, you will have a laughing good time at Animal House."

Frenzetic fun, a raucous ramble of outrageous things past and present, with enough wit to give it some character."

winners—stars—recordbreakers

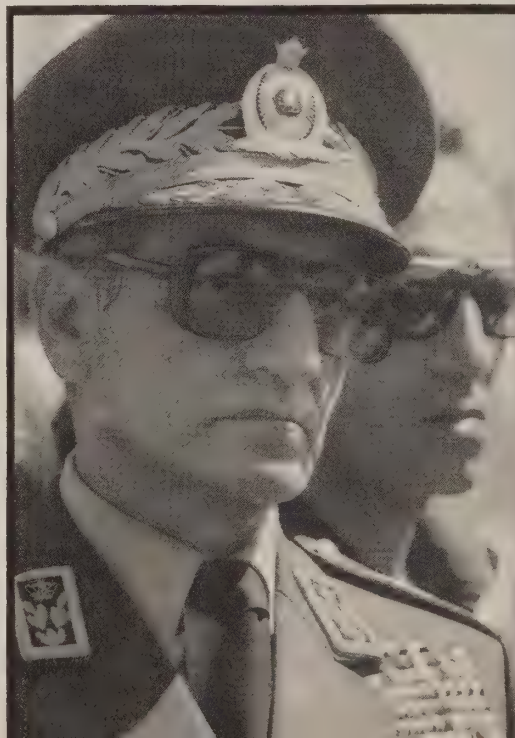

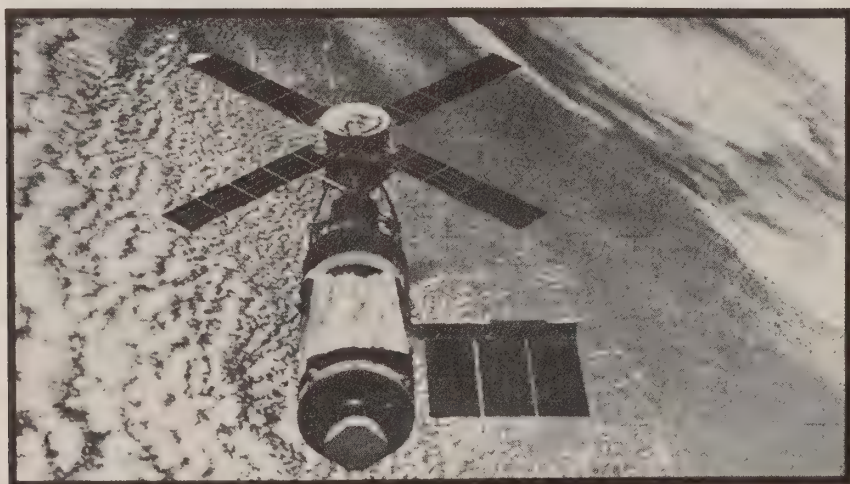

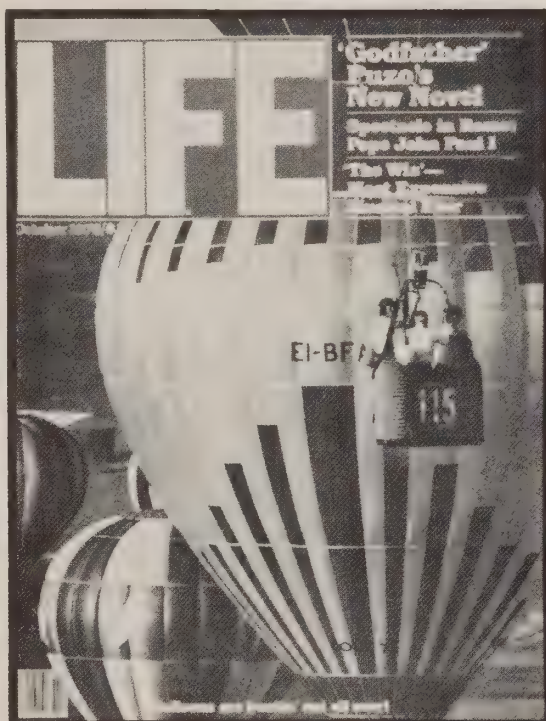

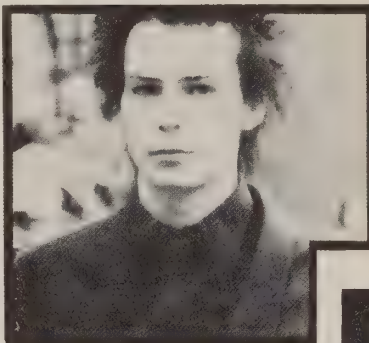

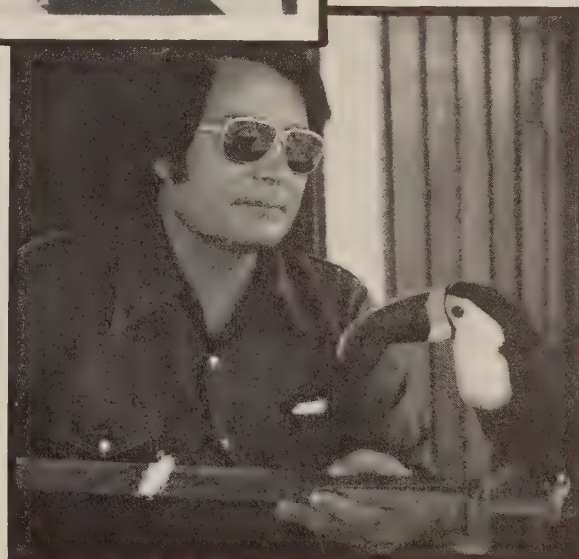

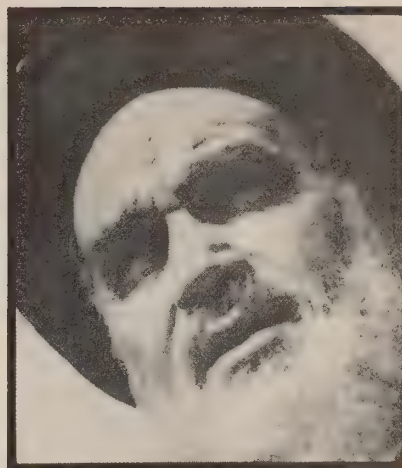

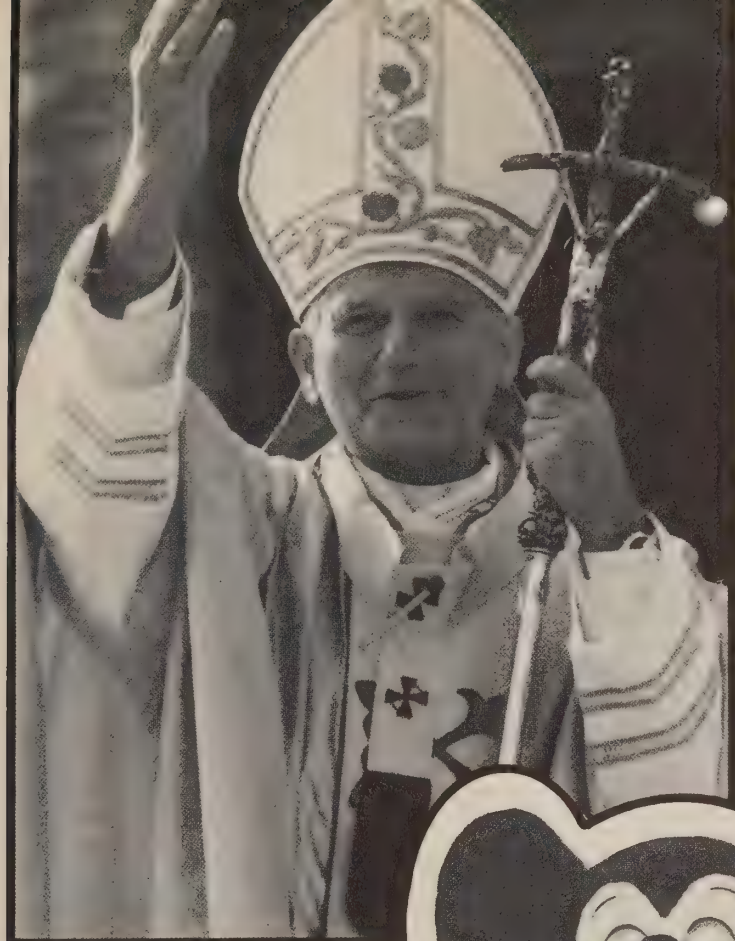

Cosmos win again. Bradshaw leads Steelers to Super Bowl win. 5'8" Jacobs has good year in high jump. Andretti has his best year since '65. Larry Bird and Kurt Thomas of Indiana State. Rice's bat earns MVP and big money contract. Ali wins title 3rd time. Cauthen wins Triple Crown, then loses 110 straight. Double Eagle II made it across the Atlantic. Guidry wins Cy Young Award as Yankees win series. Watson's top golfer again. Bullets bring Washington Championship. Sims wins Hiesman as junior. Canadians win 3rd Cup in a row. Borg wins 3rd straight Wimbledon.

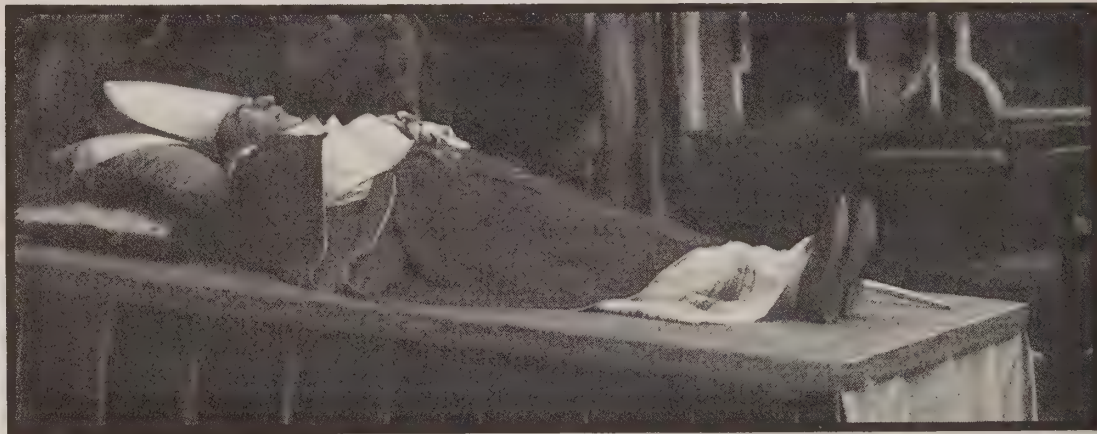

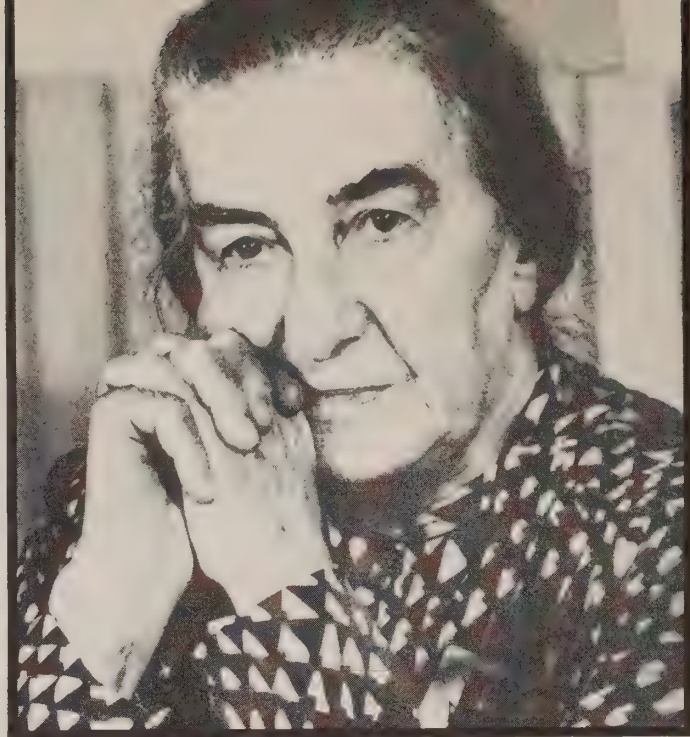

The most haunting image of the year was the scene in Jonestown, Guyana, where more than 900 met their deaths, including their leader, Jim Jones. Tragedy didn't end here; in Iran, uprisings against the Shah caused death and anarchy and the establishment of Khomeini's government. A small plane colliding with a PSA jet, killing 144, became the worst crash in aviation history. The promise of the future can be seen in Louise Brown, the first test tube baby, and Life Magazine presses rolled again. Toga parties and punk rock swept the country, but it's over for musician Sid Vicious. Mickey Mouse, celebrating his 50th birthday, doesn't look a day older; neither does Betty Ford.

in the news

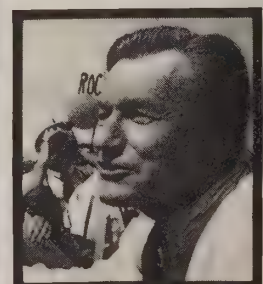

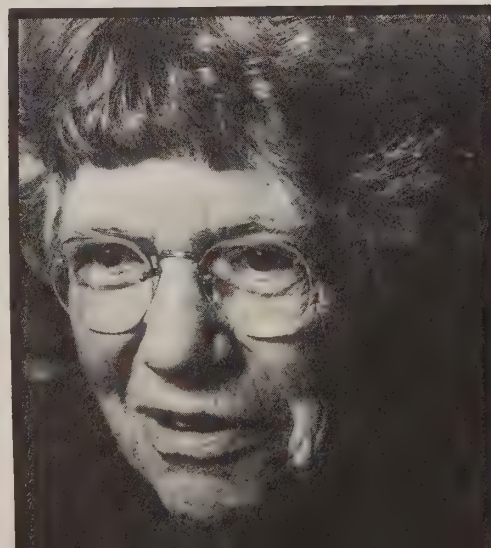

The new face in the Senate belongs to John Warner, Liz Taylor's husband. Teng Hsiao'ing visited the US, after Carter recognized his government and began normalized relations, and steps toward peace in the Middle East were made at Camp David where Begin and Sadat joined Carter. Pope John Paul II made a special visit to a Mexico welcoming him with open arms.

In remembrance of those who have died, leaving the world poorer, this page is dedicated: Golda Meir, former premiere; Norman Rockwell, who painted an ideal America; Gig Young, the actor; Pope John Paul I and his predecessor, Paul VI; "his name meant hotel" Hilton; Edgar Bergen, who delighted radio audiences; Margaret Mead, the pioneering anthropologist, Dan Daily and Robert Shaw, the actors.

success

This year's magazine drive inspired students to sell more magazine subscriptions than ever before. These high sales were mainly attributed to a special promotion assembly where the drive was more thoroughly explained to us than it has been before. Almost everyone sold subscriptions and was eligible for various prizes such as mugs, posters, candybars, stuffed animals, and tickets to see the movie "American Grafitti" which was shown in the auditorium. The profits from the drive are used by the juniors to sponsor the Junior-Senior prom.

Organizations

student government

Entering into its second year under a new constitution, this year's Student Government Association realized a greater need for contact between themselves and the student body; a realization which guided their policy for the year. Led by president Mark Cohen and fellow officers Mark Head, Charles Briggs, and Tony Anzilotti, the SGA was responsible for elections, club activity co-ordination, Homecoming, Christmas dance, Thanksgiving Can Drive, and many other activities. Two of the more organized projects were an organized anti-curfew effort and a political debate. Many daily chores were performed by the cabinet members, while Jim Stage, Jon Casello, Jim Stuart, and Mark Merrell helped run major events.

The purpose of SST is to promote school spirit and offer its services to the school. With approximately fifty members, it began the school year promoting football spirit by selling spirit ribbons, buttons, megaphones and hats. Pom-poms were handed out at the home games, which Warhawk fans showed their spirit with. This year's officers were: Tina Hyatt president; Carrie Cornils 1st V. pres.; Leslie Davis 2nd V. pres.; Kim Guthrie secretary; and Adrienne Wenz treasurer. The ICC representative was Debbie Barackman. SST is open to all Warhawk supporters and hopes to help the school achieve a spirited feeling by serving Madison in the years to come.

the latin club

During the 1978-1979 school year, the Latin Club was very active in activities both in and out of school. Club members sold popcorn at football games, dined at Marco Polo, participated in Latin Bowls, in which students competed against other high school students in competition similar to It's Academic, and went to the State Junior Classical League Convention, at which 17 students from the club participated in speaking events, arts and crafts contests, and written tests.

the montpelier staff

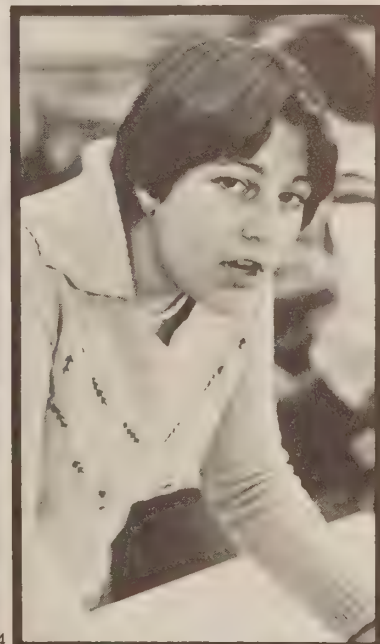

The '78-79 Montpelier is a collection of the faces, memories, and events of the year. It is the memorial of times past and the reminder of times to come. This year's staff worked long and hard to produce the best yearbook possible. Through their determination and effort, an accurate assessment of the happenings and people at Madison High School has been produced for you to enjoy and recall for years to come.

madison's creative masters

Providing a medium for students to express their creative talents, Heritage, Madison's own literary arts magazine, is a collection of both prose and art. Students are invited to submit poems, editorials, and short stories as well as photographs, prints, and drawings to the staff, where they are reviewed and edited. Finally, the top work is printed in final form, and the magazine is made available to students at the end of the year. This year's sponsor is H. P. Shaffer.

from marching fields . . .

The James Madison Marching Band has had quite a busy year. After attending band camp last August, the band kicked off the marching season in Richmond at the Virginia State Fair. Following the State Fair, the band participated in the Danville Dixie Classic as well as the Lynchburg Classic where they placed third. The band was honor band at the Mount Vernon Invitational and performed at Falls Church Tournament of Bands. The Symphonic and Concert Bands played at the District XII Festival and the Mid-Atlantic Band Festival where they received superior ratings. The band plans to take a symphonic tour and a major spring trip.

pom pons they get around

The 1978-79 Pom-Pon Squad, under the direction of Mrs. Roeder and Mrs. Linza, has performed at football games, basketball games, and pep assemblies, as well as town activities throughout the year. Camp participation at Mary Washington College resulted in 1st place trophies in all four categories offered. Additionally, the girls brought home a bundle of blue ribbons for individual recognition. Members of the squad devote much of their after-school time to perfecting their routines for performances and promoting school spirit.

madison's militia

The James Madison Rod and Gun Club's main concerns are to develop the talents and attitudes of its members for safe and skillful use of firearms. The club is composed of a rifle team and a trap and skeet group. This is the first year the Rod and Gun Club had a rifle team competing against other schools. The rifle team practices at Fort Belvoir and its meets are at Quantico. The skeet and trap teams shoot at Bull Run Public Shooting Center.

the bible club

You know, being a Christian does not mean going to church or just believing in God. It is believing, but it is also sharing with others the love Jesus Christ gave us all; the greatest gift anyone could ever give another: his life. Those of us who have decided to receive the gift are trying to show everyone else that it is for everyone. And it is free! This is the purpose of the JMHS Bible Club: to proclaim the Good News that God is alive and real and He loves us, to learn what it means to be a believer, and to grow to be all that we can be in the Lord Jesus Christ.

madison sweeps forensics

Last year, Madison's Forensics Team won the Sweepstakes in the final meet of the year, and the team did just as well this year. Each month in meets sponsored by the Northern Virginia Speech League, students from different high schools in the area compete for trophies in categories such as Prose, Poetry, Dramatic Interpretation, Dramatic Duo, Original Works, Extemporaneous Speaking, and Declamation. Many of the team members compete in different categories during the year in order to gain experience. Ms. Shannon Chastain, the team's sponsor, was the meet coordinator.

science club

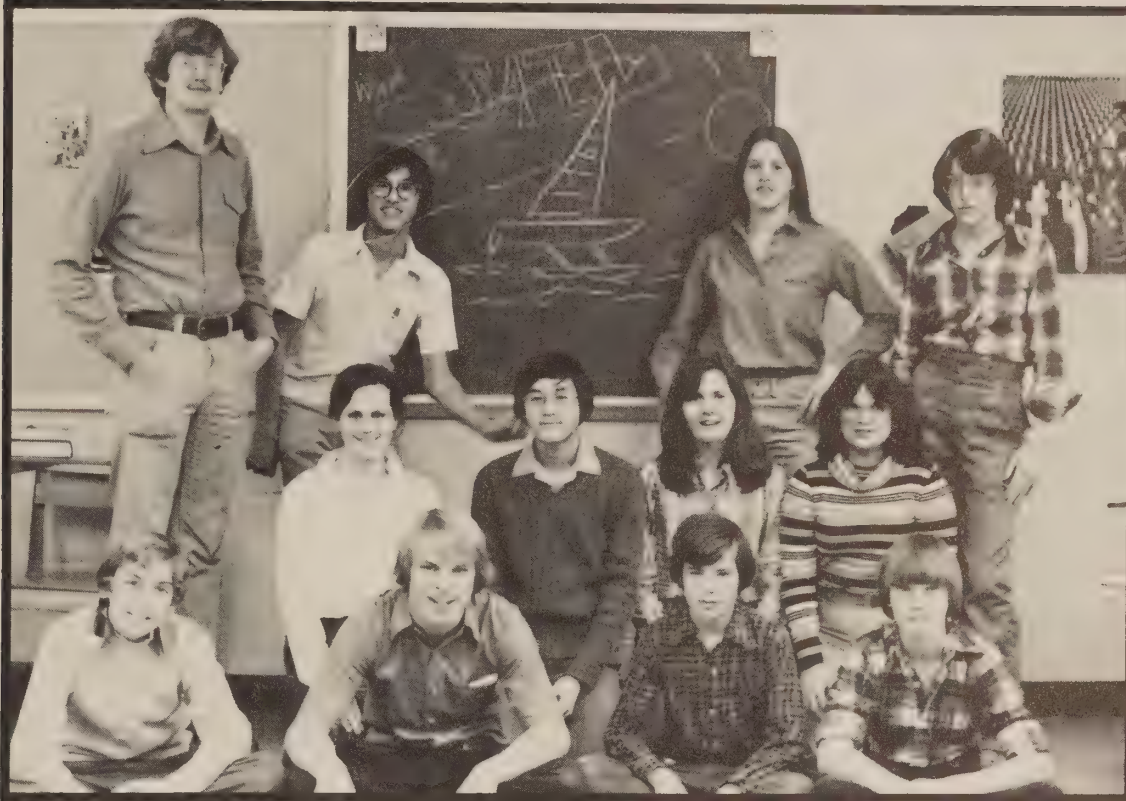

The science club is composed of students who are interested in various fields of science. An astronomy field trip was taken in early November to Mr. Klein's farm, where the members learned how to operate a telescope. This was of course an overnight trip due to the nature of astronomy. Trips involving other sciences were planned and supported by the sponsor, Mrs. Crawford.

sailing club

The sailing club is a new club at Madison this year. They go sailing whenever the weather permits, but all the members do not own their own boat. A weekend trip is planned on a forty-nine foot boat in March. The sailing club members not only sailed, but also went on a few skiing trips. Their main objective is to interest people in sailing. They intend to have presentations on sail and knot making as well as sailing in general. All novices and sailors are encouraged to learn how to enjoy this marvelous sport.

The Future Homemakers of America is a service organization. The club itself plans and carries out several service projects throughout the year. Some of the highlights were our candlelight initiation dinner, the Miss Madison Pagant, and the Red Cross Bloodmobile.

art club

The Art Club is known for its lunch-time atmosphere by bringing "munchies" to each meeting. However, this service club has dedicated much time to the decorations for school activities such as the Sadie Hawkins Dance murals. The club meetings are informal, promoting individuality by letting members use their talent. The Club members not only learn how to make many types of crafts, but planned on attending art shows and asked for speakers to talk to the group. The major money making project was the carnation sale in the early spring.

girls athletic association

The Girls' Athletic Association is a service organization geared to help the sports-oriented girls of the school. The GAA sponsored the District Tennis Tournament this fall along with the Tennis team. They plan to offer their services to all girls' tournaments held at Madison. All girls who have completed a season with a team, as a manager or as a participant are eligible to join. Currently the club has twenty-five members and is sponsored by Mrs. Hackett.

The Madison chapter of the National Honor Society is composed of 150 students. All of these students have at least a 3.5 grade point average, and have demonstrated leadership, character, and willingness to serve. Induction ceremonies are held in the fall and spring. During the year, the National Honor Society provided tutoring, sponsored the Follies, and encouraged school and community involvement.

The lure of travel and adventure brings people together in the American Field Service, sponsored by Mrs. Chin. The club's objective is to provide students all over the world with the opportunity to visit or live in another country. This year Madison had two visitors: Jane Bathgate from Australia, and Eli Arana from Spain. Besides receiving foreign students, Madison's A.F.S. club also sponsors some of its own members to go and live in another country. Debbie Herlig, the president of the club, lived for a summer in Indonesia, where she learned the customs and traditions of an oriental culture. Julie Kemper, a senior at Madison, plans to travel to Chile for a full-term exchange. In addition to foreign exchanges, Madison's A.F.S. club sponsors members in groups or singly to other parts of the country. Carol Henderson recently spent a semester in Liberty, Missouri as a domestic exchange student. The A.F.S. club has had a great time doing many different kinds of activities relating to travel, adventure, and fun.

The International Relations Club meets each Thursday to prepare for the North American Model United Nations which they plan to attend. The members spend a great deal of time researching political affairs of Yemen, the country which Madison will represent. Through the Model U.N., the members learn how foreign policy works at the United Nations. Sponsoring the club this year is Mr. Carlton Inglis.

I.R.C. members: Herbie Hecht (president), Anna Penna (vice-president), Mark Cohen (secretary), Jim Stuart (treasurer), Tony Anzilotti, Jim Buchanan, Tony deLeon, Richard Gratz, Paul Krumviede, Stuart Pierce, Steve Thompson, Mark Wildman, Joe Woo. 1,2 "Will the REAL I.R.C. members please look up?"

administration

Mr. Felton has really enjoyed his three years at Madison. He feels that they have been "a wonderful experience" for him. "All of the students work very hard and seem to know where they want to go." Our principal hopes for "continued academic excellence" and feels all aspects of school spirit are "good, but could be better." He wishes to congratulate the members of the faculty for the fine job they are doing with the students. Mr. Felton is married and has two children: one in high school and one in college. He would like to spend more time on outside activities, especially photography. Throughout the year, it has been Mr. Felton's goal to be "a part of the school rather than apart from the school."

This year the Varsity football team completed its best season ever in the twenty-one year history of James Madison High School. Its perfect 10-0 slate reflected the long and tiring hours of practice and coaching which went into making such a fine football team. For the third time in four years, Madison won the district title and closed the regular season with a stunning victory, a 10-0 shutout over rival Marshall. Furthermore, Madison went on to defeat a previously unbeaten team, West Springfield, 34-21 in the Regional Semi-Final playoffs. However, Madison was dealt a crushing defeat, 31-0, in the Regional Finals by a superior Annandale team.

In addition, Madison placed eight players on the All-District team, including Mark Brower, Jim Cronin, Herbie Hecht, Rick Lipscomb, Pete Kattmann, Mark Merrell, Mark

Schramm, and Dave Workman. Also, Hecht, Kattman, Merrell, and Lipscomb were chosen for the All-Metropolitan team. Lipscomb, who was the Metro area's leading scorer, and Merrell both earned a spot on the All-State first and second team respectively. Congratulations to Coach Sell, Washington Star's "Coach of the Year," and all the Varsity football players!

Madison's 1978-'79 Cross Country team completed its season placing 4th in the Great Falls district meet at Burke Lake. Outstanding runners include Greg Mitchell, Joe Purdham, Yung Kim, Robert Lampman, and Paul Bonham. Mr. Moss, an excellent coach, expressed a slight disappointment with this year's team, but feels that with serious training, it can improve and become an outstanding team.

varsity basketball

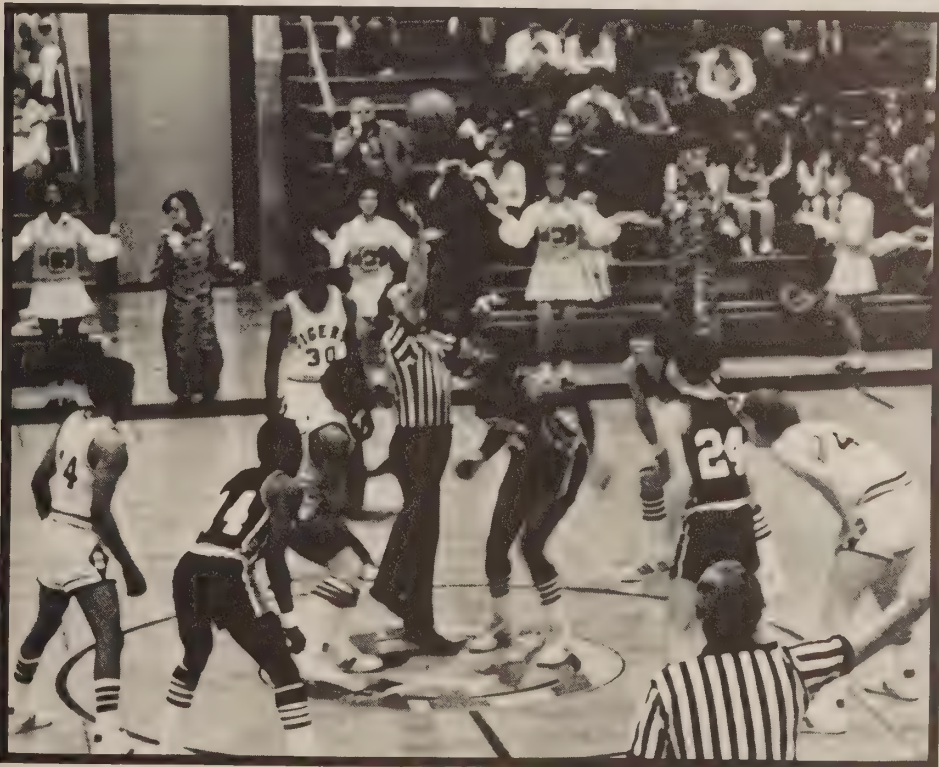

skims the hoop

Although this year's Varsity Basketball Team got off to a slow start, it did manage to improve and pick up a few victories including a 64 to 58 victory over rival Marshall. Many snow days proved to be a major setback in the season's final games, but the season finally came to an end in late February with the team finishing with a 5 and 13 record.

wrestlers fight for victory

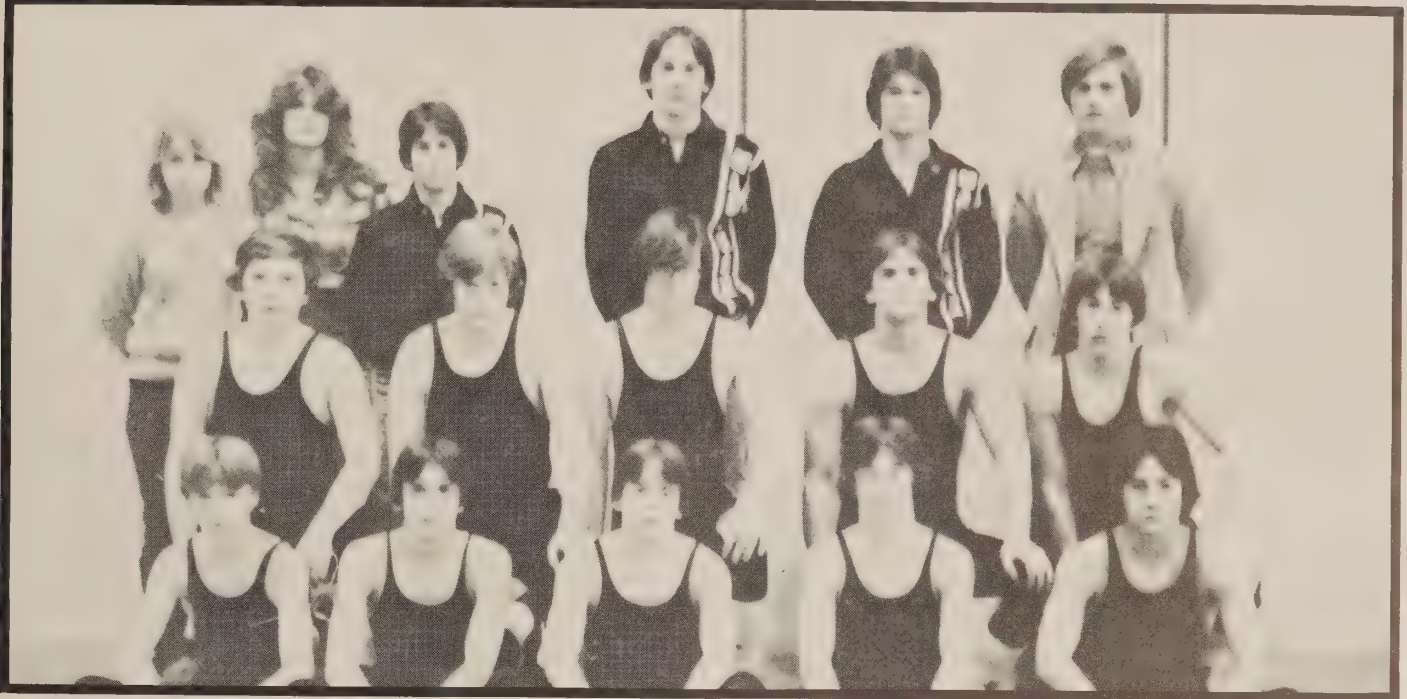

The Varsity Wrestling Team struggled to pull off a 3 and 8 record this year. Although the team did not do well as a whole, individual members succeeded in the tournaments. At the District Tournament Steve Harlow was a champion, Billy Christie and Kevin Richter were runners-up, and Matt Chesley placed third. These wrestlers advanced to the Regional Tournament where Kevin Richter placed fourth. Richter then advanced to the State Tournament where he finished in seventh place.

varsity swimming and diving

The Varsity Swim Team completed its best season in seven years with a 4-2 record. Included in that record are victories over last year's and this year's Great Falls District Champions Herndon and Marshall High Schools. Coach Frank Deluca and Co-

Captains Roger Fiedler and Jack Hallahan kept the Warhawks afloat.

Practicing daily, the Varsity Baseball Team is an experienced ball club which Coach Don Roth feels will be "contenders." Many returning players should make the team successful.

varsity track—setting the pace

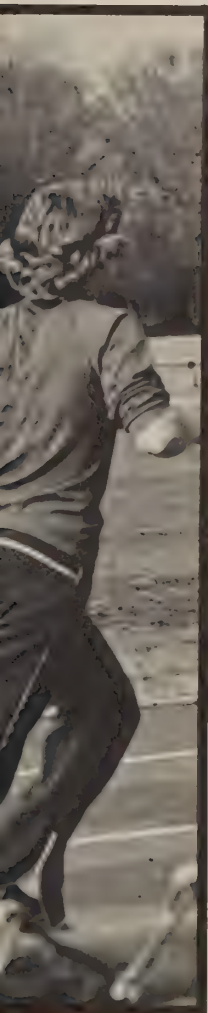

Under the experienced direction of Coach John D'Elia, Madison's varsity track and field team promises to pull off another winning season this spring. Several excellent runners such as Yung Kim, Larry Sinnott, and Tony Thomas are expected to add strength to the team, as will leaders in field events, "Doc" Dauksys and Tony Thomas. Major successes of the team this season will be due to its long hours of practice and to team unity.

sultans of swing

Although the tennis team had only a few weeks of practice before the start of its season, this year's team has the potential for a good season. The team is composed of many talented players who are devoted to the sport and willing to put forth their best efforts towards making this season a good one. Members of the 1978-'79 tennis team are Mark Nottingham, Chris Burke, David Janas, Scott Mitchell, Veldo Teal, Lanny Tuey, Paul Smith, Joe Harpe, Butch Dumpit, David Schweizer, Will Pickett, Todd Norris, and Kirk Tuey.

on the green

All but one of last year's golfers returned to the golf team this year. Many of the returning golfers played well last year and are expected to play equally well this year. Several of these outstanding golfers are Jimmy Frank, Barrett Hubbard, David Hannah, and Curt Alexander. The team is also expected to do well this year. Coach Hannah believes that the team should place first in the district and in the top four in the region. All and all, this year should prove to be one of the golf team's best ever.

The 1978-'79 Golf Team: Coach Hannah, Scott Johnson, David Hannah, Mike Dillard, Courtney Sargent, Curt Alexander, Herbie Hecht, Bobby Sargent, Barrett Hubbard, Bo

a kick in the grass

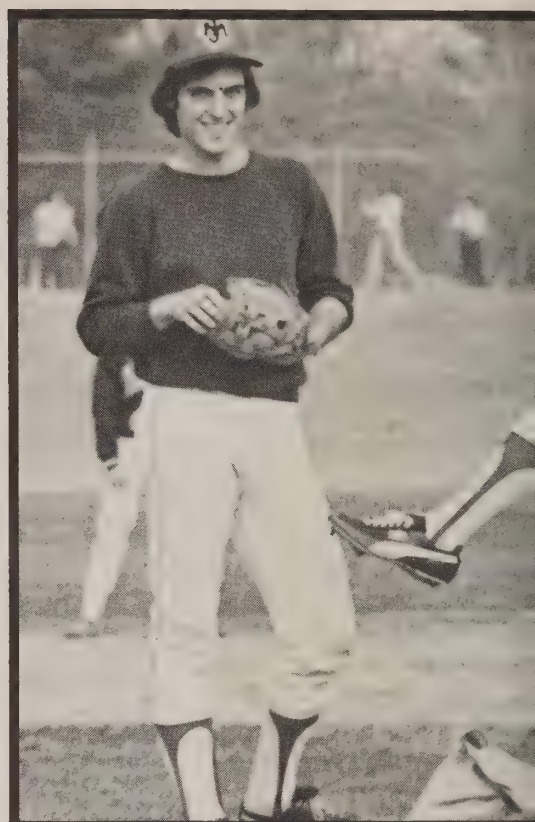

A growing enthusiasm towards soccer was present in all who tried out for the team this year. Beginning practices in January, potential soccer players spent many tedious hours in the gym preparing for the season. With the approach of good weather, the members of the team moved outdoors and continued their rigorous training program. As the season drew to a start, the team was shaping up well. It is apparent that the many hours Coach Baumann spent preparing the team will aid the team to have what should be one of its better seasons.

perfect season

With a few returning Varsity players and several rising JVers, Madison hoped for a good season. However, the new expanded season (now 10 total games) proved to be grueling. The JV season was shown to be equally as difficult. The team consisted of many rookies which created more problems for the young team. Through the long season both teams showed great spirit and continually kept their hopes high.

MADISON TENNIS GIRLS VARSITY

we are the warhawks

Behind every winning team there's a winning cheerleading squad. This year's fall varsity squad cheered for the football and cross country teams. These girls help promote school spirit and add a special touch which makes attending varsity games more exciting. Captains Sue Yost and Anna Penna keep the squad on its toes.

winter varsity cheerleaders

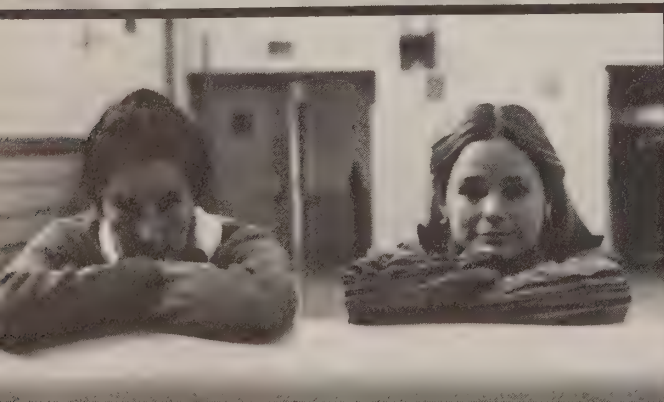

This year, 18 Winter Varsity Cheerleaders were chosen, then divided into two squads. One of these squads cheered for our girls' basketball and wrestling teams, the other squad cheered for our boys' basketball team. Rather than being elected by the usual student poll, the winter varsity cheerleaders were chosen by a panel of judges. Both squads did a fine job of representing Madison.

Girls' Track Team

This year's Girls Track sponsor, Ms. Linda Sharrard, is optimistic about the coming track season. Participants in both track and field events look promising. Returning members expected tiring workouts, but those trying out for the first time are now experiencing the aches and pains that come with practicing for such a disciplined and demanding sport.

if you believe in magic you will never, never grow old if you are a dreamer you will never lose your soul

—bill danoff and taffy danoff in the eyes of my people let me be a special friend a friend they can rely on a shoulder they can cry on a fighter who'll stand by them till the very end . . .

—mac davis

... poems and prayers and promises and things that we believe in how sweet it is to love someone how right it is to care how long it's been since yesterday what about tomorrow what about our dreams and all the memories we share

—john denver

sometimes the lights are shinin' on me other times i can barely see lately it occurs to me—what a long, strange trip it's been —robert hunter, jerry garcia, phil lesh, bob weir

We may never pass this way again
We may never pass this way again
We may never pass this way again i wanna laugh while the laughin' is easy i wanna cry if it makes it worthwhile i may never pass this way again
that's why i want it with you
'cause you make me feel like i'm more than a friend like i'm the journey and you're the journey's end i may never pass this way again
that's why i want it with you
we may never pass this way again
